Appendix: -1 -

Dear Mr. Jakob,

The government has in the meantime stated its position with regard to the subject of your petition.

The Petitions Office has carefully checked and assessed the factual and legal status of your petition, taking into account the government's statement of position and by means of its comprehensive petition database. It came to the conclusion that your matter essentially complies with the current legal situation.

Please find enclosed the statement of position for your information. It accurately describes the material and legal facts relevant to the decision in your case.

The Petitions Office requests your understanding that in accordance with the guidelines of the Petitions Office on the handling of petitions and complaints (procedural principles), your petition proceedings are concluded with this decision.

With kind regards

By order

Hartmut Wahn
